

【Product Name】

Intracranial Aneurysm Impact Diagnostic Support Software

【Product Introduction】

The product consists of a software installation and authorized files. It is used for displaying, processing, measuring and analysing cranial magnetic resonance imaging images to assist in the detection of intracranial cystic aneurysms of 3mm and above. It is used by trained physicians and can't be used alone as a basis for clinical diagnosis and treatment decisions.