

【Product Name】

Children Bone Age Intelligent Diagnostic Support Software

【Product Introduction】

The product consists of an installation disc. Based on the x-ray image of children's hand and AI (artificial intelligence), it employs deep learning techniques to locate ossification centers and calculate bone age according to the TW3 method. Main clinical functions of the product are image import, image query and screening, bone age calculation, image viewing, annotation management, height curve and calculator.