

【Product Name】

Shockwave Peripheral Intravascular Lithotripsy (IVL) Catheter

【Product Introduction】

The product consists of a shockwave catheter and a connecting pigtail. It is a rapid exchange catheter with a hydrophilic coating applied to the distal end of the catheter. The product is used in medical institutions to pre-treat previously unintervened, primary coronary artery lesions in adult patients prior to stent implantation.