【Product Name】

Thinprep Cytology Image Diagnostic Support Software

【Product Introduction】

After liquid-based preparation of cervical exfoliated cells, the product generates digital slides through imaging with a digital slide scanner. These digital slides are then analyzed by computer technology based on artificial intelligence. The AI gives negative or positive diagnostic result and screens out suspicious lesion cells, to assist cytopathologists to make cytopathological diagnoses more quickly and accurately.